A large, dark wood U-shaped desk with a leather chair, dual monitors, and a lamp in an office setting. The desk is made of rich, dark wood with a polished finish. It features a large, flat top surface and a base with decorative paneling. A blue leather office chair is positioned in front of the desk. On the desk, there are two large monitors, a mouse, and a lamp. The background shows a window with blinds and curtains.

A close-up photograph of a wooden service counter. The counter has a dark, possibly black or dark grey, countertop. The main body of the counter is made of dark-stained wood with a vertical grain. A white arrow points from the text 'TRANSACTION COUNTER' to a smooth, dark panel on the side of the counter. Below the counter, there are wooden cabinets with a decorative, paneled design. In the background, a blue office chair and a desk are partially visible.
